HIGHLANDS LATIN SCHOOL— INDIANAPOLIS

Classical Christian Education K–12

2022-2023 SCHOOL PROFILE

HLS, located in Carmel, Indiana is a classical, Christian school for students in grades K–12 and was founded in 2011, with a full high school program beginning in 2013. Our school serves students from around the Indianapolis area and suburbs.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT AND CLASS SIZE

Our students are divided into the Upper and Lower Schools. The Upper School, grades 7–12, comprises around 70 pupils. The average class size is 14 students allowing teachers to develop and maintain strong personal relationships with each student. HLS welcomes students of any race, sex, religion, and national or ethnic origin.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM

The HLS Upper School employs a college-style schedule which operates Tuesday through Friday and consists of 27 class periods per week. The unique calendar places a premium on student efficiency, organization, and productivity. Highlands is a college preparatory school with high academic standards in all classes, eliminating the need to designate between standard and honors courses. Classes meet for a full year with most classes earning students 1 credit. Classes that meet only 1–2 times per week earn .25 or .5 credits depending on the workload expectation.

HOUSE SYSTEM AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

HLS Upper School students are organized into four Houses named for the four patron saints of the British Isles. Each House has four officers that serve a one-year term leading their House in service projects, social events, athletic contests, and the Renaissance competition. The House system works to build community and tradition among students as they compete for points in hopes of winning the coveted House Cup at the end of the year. Students can also participate in Intramural Sports, Hand Bell Choir, Greece & Italy trip, Upper School Retreat, Debate Team, Service Club, Shakespeare Club and Yearbook Club.
